AUGUST 3, 2010 PRIMARY ELECTION

Display this lawn sign on Election day.
Call 248-594-6602 to purchase a sign.

Four of Oakland County's State Senate districts, three of its State House districts, and three of its County Commissioner districts are Open seats with no incumbents, and thus drew a significant number of candidates. Often the Primary can be the deciding election as to who will represent you because of the political demographics of the voters in the district. The League of Women Voters encourages all citizens to exercise their right to vote on August 3rd.

To that end, we provide nonpartisan information for voters to help them evaluate the candidates. See Page 3 for detail on the following:

Visit our Website www.LWVOA.ORG for voter information through our VOTER GUIDES and CANDIDATE FORUMS.

Also see websites of partner non-partisan organizations:

League of Women Voters backs trio of proposals

Below is a Letter to the Editor which was sent to Oakland County newspapers. While the League of Women Voters never supports or opposes candidates for office, it does study issues and takes positions on them after membership consensus. As the League is a multi-level organization, it has positions at the national, state, regional and local level. Using positions on Parks & Recreation (local), Mass Transit (regional), and Education (state), the Oakland Area board voted to support three proposals with impact on the majority of county residents.

The League of Women Voters Oakland Area is in favor of passing all three county ballot proposals on the Aug. 3 primary ballot.

We support the Oakland County Parks and Recreation millage renewal based on our local position that provisions for open spaces, parks and recreational lands be available.

We support the Oakland County Public Transportation millage renewal based on our regional position of having a regional transit system.

We support the Oakland Community College millage renewal proposal based on our state position that community colleges be available for all.

Judy Bateman, President
League of Women Voters Oakland Area

WATCH for an E-mail about our Saturday, August 21st DREAM CRUISE Plans

LWVOA would like to again sell pizza and pop at the Dream Cruise in downtown Birmingham for the Dream Cruise. To do this, we need an appropriate booth site. Once that has been secured, an Email will go out to members asking for (1) donations of pop or dollars to buy pizza and (2) Volunteers to staff the booth on Saturday, August 21. It is a fun way to earn money to fund our activities.

The League of Women Voters, a non-partisan political organization, encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

There is no better way to understand the importance of the League and the impact it has on our country than to attend the LWV National Convention, as Renate Soulen and I did in Atlanta, GA, last month. Congressman John Lewis advised us to keep "getting in the way" on issues. A panel of former LWVUS presidents reminded us of the influence they had on presidents, government leaders, and legislation. League members from around the country brought important information and educated us on the critical issues of the day. Renate and I attended caucuses, workshops, and meetings. We used what we learned to vote, on your behalf, to decide the direction the league will take for the next two years. The two new studies, three concurrences, and six resolutions are listed in this Voter. Let's get educated, get active, and continue to "get in the way" to make democracy work.

LWVOA participated in the MiVote Roadshow held in Oakland County. Thanks to Linda DePoorter, coordinator, and the following members who came out to help with the 5-minute taped interviews of those candidates who attended: Sybil Levenson, Jerry Burden, Barbara Talley, John Magary, Geri Rinschler, Karen DeGrendel, Mary Ann Barkach, Marge Polidori, & Shaniya Jarrett. Thanks, too, to Helen Sergott for helping in Macomb County.

Thanks to everyone who helped at the LWVOA Annual Meeting as I couldn't be there, especially Bernadette Najor who led the meeting, Sheryl Mitchell who invited Phil Power to speak, and Eva Packard who made sure our speaker was made welcome.

Special thanks to Jerry Burden who coordinated many of the July candidate forums for the August Primary election. He and John Magary will be attending 7 of the 9 non-judicial forum events. Jerry, Carla Gribbs, Tera Moon, Sheryl Mitchell, Neil Zechman and I will be moderating, John is our main screener, Pat Finn will screen and coordinate in Ferndale. Others who will time or pass out cards & pencils are: Fran Fisher, Shaniya Jarrett, Linda Brown, Karen DeGrendel, Mary Howarth and others to be named later.

Several OA members attended the LWVDMA Annual Meeting Saturday, July 10 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Tim Bledsoe, a former professor of political science at WSU and now a State Representative, spoke highlighting the reasons he feels that a new state constitution is a good idea.

President, Judy Bateman

Available ON-LINE Voter Information for August Primary

Voter Service Vice-president Debra Horner prepared individual VOTER GUIDES for the 25 Oakland County Commissioner Districts, 6 Township races, and 2 Judicial contests. Webmaster Tera Moon posted them on our website www.LWVOA.ORG and linked to the federal and state contests for Governor, US Representative, State Senator, and State Representative on the LWV of Michigan website and to the many ballot proposals on the County Clerk's website. There will be no printed guide for the Primary, but Oakland Area will do one for the General Election. Thank You to the Taubman Company for providing funding toward that guide.

Thank you again to Bernadette Najor, who arranged for our Annual Meeting to be held at the beautiful Shenandoah Country Club in West Bloomfield followed by a tasty lunch, and who also Chaired the Annual Meeting as President Judy Bateman was out of town at a family event. The business meeting moved quickly with no changes to the Budget, Program, or Officers as presented to the membership. All local program positions were retained. We will continue the consolidation of our various 1st local government positions.

Members were directed to the President's Report in the Workbook to read about the Proclamation received for the League's 90th Anniversary from the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, awards received by LWVOA members, our 26 Candidate Forums, 54 Voter Guides, Clerk interviews on voter registration procedures, They Represent You brochures updates, our high school PSA Contest on the Census, a DMA program on health care as we age, an OA program on health care reform, the fall luncheon on the need for a free press, speakers on prisons followed by a consensus meeting, national program planning, our fundraiser/ party with "Iron Jawed Angel", and Advocacy Day in Lansing. It was a busy year during which LWVOA also went on Facebook. Judy thanked the many members who made our accomplishments possible, our contributors and supporters, and especially the LWVOA Board.

PHIL POWER's presentation at Annual Meeting entuses members to be involved

Our luncheon speaker, invited by board member Sheryl Mitchell, was Philip Power, founder and President of the Center for Michigan. He spent nearly 40 years in the newspaper business as founder, owner and Chairman of HomeTown Communications, which published 62 community newspapers including the Observer & Eccentric, Mirror, and various papers in West Oakland County. He also served on the University of Michigan Board of Regents and chaired the Michigan Job Training Coordinating Council. He currently serves as Vice-Chair of the Michigan Economic Development Corporation.

The Center For Michigan, founded in 2006 after Power sold the papers, is a "think-and-do-tank" aimed at improving the policy and political environment in Michigan. It is a bi-partisan organization which intends to incite a citizen movement to heal the broken political structure.

Phil Power began Michigan's Defining Moment Public Engagement Campaign in 2007. He gave it that name because he believes that decisions made in the next five years will determine the future of the state. Community conversations have been held all across Michigan with a wide demographic to gather the people's vision for Michigan and develop an action plan to achieve that vision. Over 10,000 people participated over the past three years. The result was a 10-point plan focused on three visions or principles: (1) Economic Growth & Quality of Life, (2) a Talented, Globally Competitive Workforce, and (3) Effective, Efficient & Accountable Government.

Actions to achieve the first vision include creating a more business friendly and entrepreneurial environment, overhauling the Michigan tax system for the 21st century, and building on Michigan's distinctive & competitive assets. To achieve the second vision, action steps were to change how & what schools teach, transform education operations & funding, and hold educators, parents & students to higher standards. The action steps for the third vision were to hold politicians – and ourselves – more accountable, extend or repeal term limits, develop & execute transparent & strategic budgets, and intensify consolidation and service sharing in local government.

In 2008, there were 48 open seats in the legislature and the Center for Michigan met with the candidates for those seats and explained the preliminary findings. The legislators elected formed a bi-partisan caucus to work on key items such as adopting a balanced budget by July 1, changing term limits which 'mandate inexperience', reducing prison spending, increasing education standards. They saved the Pure Michigan campaign which brought in more dollars than it cost. In 2010, the Roadshow taped videos for online viewing of candidates for 78 open seats who answered four questions related to the visions. Participants were also informed about results from the 10,000 voices.

The intent is to link citizens' visions with the political system and policy development for a better Michigan future. Member enthusiasm for Power's presentation was high and members expressed interest in involvement with the Center's efforts to increase bipartisan cooperation to help solve Michigan's problems.

For more information on the Center for Michigan, go to www.thecenterformichigan.net. Phil Power writes a weekly column which appears on the website. Other items on the website include the 10,000 Voices booklet, the Michigan Truth Squad which fact checks political ads and provides an analysis of whether fact or fiction, and online petitions dealing with topics such as tax & budget reform, term limit reform and education reform. The Center produces a weekly eNewsletter which is emailed to those who sign up to receive it.

Phil Power's presentation to the LWVOA Annual Meeting can be viewed on Greater West Bloomfield Civic Center TV15 on Fri/Sat/Sun, 7/23-25 at 8 am and at 7 pm and on Thur, 7/29 at 9 pm.

(Supported by a good number of Leagues. Board recommended.)
- Privatization: the policy agenda to transfer government functions, services, and assets to the private sector. (Non-recommended item – close votes for consideration and approval.)

CONCURRENCES approved:

- Arms Control: Board-Recommended concurrence to amend and update the Arms Control position. See the LWVUS website www.lwv.org for new position text.
- Equality in Marriage: Adds to LWVUS Equality of Opportunity position: “The League of Women Voters of the United States supports equal rights for all under state and federal law. LWVUS supports legislation to equalize the legal rights, obligations, and benefits available to same-gender couples with those available to heterosexual couples. LWVUS supports legislation to permit same-gender couples to marry under civil law. The League believes that the civil status of marriage is already clearly distinguished from the religious institution of marriage and that religious rights will be preserved.” [Non-recommended. Required 2/3 vote to approve.]
- National Popular Vote: This concurrence adds the following words to the third sentence of the LWVUS position on selection of the president: “We support the use of the National Popular Vote Compact as one acceptable way to achieve the goal of the direct popular vote for election of the president until the abolition of the Electoral College is accomplished” [Non-recommended. Required 2/3 vote to approve.]

The LWVUS further urges the legislative and executive branches of the federal government to immediately take all necessary steps to maximize to the extent practicable, the ability and efforts of all relevant federal agencies and departments to take action, and to work with the U.S. coastal states and communities most directly affected, to respond creatively, efficiently and effectively to the environmental, health and economic crisis created by the oil flowing from the out of control BP oil well in the Gulf of Mexico, and by the efforts to contain and disperse it.

2010 LWVUS National Convention Report – by Renate Soulen

First I would like to thank LWVOA for the opportunity to attend this convention as a voting delegate. The meeting was intense, informative, energizing and exhausting! Caucuses began at 7:30 AM and the program ran 'til 10 PM daily until concluding at noon on the 15th. Since multiple caucuses and workshops ran concurrently, choices had to be made; Judy and I tried to attend different ones.

Plenary sessions, at which LWVUS business was conducted (see decisions in prior article), also featured an impassioned speech by Congressman John Lewis of Atlanta (who was spat on and vilified for voting in favor of health care reform) urging the LWV to never give up and to keep “getting in the face” of Congress, a speech by HHS Secretary Kathleen Sebelius, which focused on the history of the suffrage movement and the continuing importance of women working to support legislation like the Affordable Care Act which she described in some detail, and a panel of past LWVUS presidents, each of whom spoke briefly about the highlights of her tenure and lessons learned – among them, to have fun while being persistent in fighting for goals. “Gerrymandering: The Movie” was shown during one lunch hour. Soon to be released, it is a documentary with emphasis on a successful referendum campaign to outlaw the practice in California; it is well done and might serve LWVOA for a fund-raising meeting.

Notable were four Convention awards for projects:

- 1) Online Engagement Award – to LWV Houston area, TX, for Facebook & Twitter activities engaging the community,
- 2) Pioneer Award – to LWV Oak Park-River Forest, IL, for a very creative “Roll out the Rain Barrels” campaign for water conservation (similar to the lion statues decorated in the Detroit area),
- 3) Connection with Community Award – to LWV Bellingham-Whatcom County, WA, for a series of community workshops invoking “Civil Discussions in Uncivil Times”, and
- 4) Strengthening Democracy through Reform Award – to LWV of California for their work on redistricting reform (featured in the above noted movie).

Summarizing the eight caucuses/workshops I attended:

1. Marriage Equality - sponsored by LWVs of MD & Saratoga County, NY – discussed the need for the (subsequently passed) addition to the LWVUS Equality of Opportunity position specifying equality in both marriage rights and responsibilities of same-gender and heterosexual couples.

2. National Popular Vote - sponsored by LWV AZ – noting that Congress is not presently favorable to a constitutional amendment to abolish the Electoral College and that the suffrage movement did not succeed until it went to individual states, the supporters of NPV propose a voluntary compact among states which agree to award their electoral votes to the presidential candidate who receives a plurality of the national vote – the compact to take effect when states collectively possessing a majority of electoral votes have enacted it. Support for NPV subsequently passed.

3. Improved Medicare for All – sponsored by LWV of Bloomington-Monroe County, IN – featured a talk by Dr. Rob Stone, Director of Hoosiers for a Common Sense Health Plan (HCHP) and Illinois Coordinator for Physicians for a National Health Program (PNHP) (slides available at HCHP.info). A passionate supporter of single-payer universal health care, he compared health care costs and results in the US with those in other developed nations, stressing both the inadequacy of the recently passed health care reform bill and the evils of for-profit health insurance companies. He predicts that runaway costs will make Medicare for all inevitable. His bottom line: educate yourself, find your voice, and join groups that are pushing a single-payer National Health Insurance Plan.

4. Spreading the Health Care Message – sponsored by LWV of Sudbury, MA – this caucus addressed grassroots efforts to spread the word on the need for a single-payer health plan which, advocates believe, would yield savings both to businesses and individuals despite paying for it through taxes on individual salaries and community offices. Advice: more focus on states versus national – with some states joining in a single-player plan; use of Healthcare-NOW.com (which collaborates with PNHP); offer to give luncheon talks on the subject to service clubs such as Kiwanis; ask people to divest investments in for-profit health insurers. Both this and #3 above emphasized that single-payer means publicly-financed but privately-delivered health care – hence “improved Medicare for all”. Personally I have a problem with that slogan since Medicare is widely seen as riddled with waste and corruption; proponents favor it because people understand the term Medicare better than “single payer”.

5. Working for Sustainability: Citizen’s Toolkit for Energy/Climate Change Action – sponsored by LWVUS Climate Change Task Force – kudos to the task force! This splendid toolkit (available by link from LWVUS website) provides a range of well-researched activities, strategies and resources categorized under 1) choosing a role for your league, 2) basics of climate change, 3) engaging individuals, 4) mobilizing communities, 5) promoting public policy, and 6) resources for climate change related issues. LWVOA can surely find something worthwhile here.

6. Voter Registration Workshop – focused on building voter registration strategies with emphasis on youth and underrepresented groups. Strategies to attract youth include a partnership with a wrestling TV channel, the “Smackdown Your Vote!” campaign (T-shirts available), and going into high schools (particularly in minority neighborhoods) to register eligible students. Indeed the LWVEF announced a 2010 Democracy Award contest to recognize outstanding work to engage young people in the political process. Open to any state or local league working in youth engagement, registration & voting, it offers cash prizes of $4,000 (grand prize) and $2,000 (2 runners-up); applications will be online in the fall and are due to LWVEF by 11/30/10.

7. Advocacy of Federal Issues Workshop – Lloyd Leonard, the LWVUS Senior Director of Advocacy, updated lobbying efforts on climate change and health care reform, applauding the volunteer lobbying core of League members in the D.C. area who are briefed weekly and then meet with appropriate members of Congress and/or their staff. The Gulf oil spill is influencing bills under consideration and he urged members to lobby their congressmen/senators with emphasis on alternative energy sources to improve/assure US independence. A veteran lobbyist spoke of the importance of humor in effective lobbying.

8. Our Great Lakes – sponsored by LWV of Lake Michigan – a lively speaker presented a PowerPoint talk of water issues. She would be a great speaker to have at one of our meetings. [See LWVOA Fall Luncheon below.]
