PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

Our experience at the Dream Cruise became a challenging one in many ways. We had to contend with terrible weather and we shared our small space with Ron of Vineyards Café and Catering, who donates ice every year, and was also selling his new product, flax bars. But most challenging was being within a few feet of a group preaching the hell and damnation school of religion for over 2 hours. This was a time when our principles met reality. It was a time to reflect on and reinforce what democracy is really all about, that even if you don't agree, everyone has the right to a voice.

Speaking of a voice, it was inspiring to have 7 League members and even 2 non-members hawking pizza, ("Get your pizza $1 a slice"), from the tiny, gentle voice of Christine Jurgenson to the booming voice of Karen Johnston. Thanks to them and to Mary Ann Barkach, Tera and Joe Moon, Julia Ruffin, Larry Brown, and especially Dorothy Conrad and Jerry Burden. Dorothy and I stayed all day and even with all the challenges we managed to make $700.

Coming up on Monday, September 20 is the Fall Luncheon with 2 speakers and a presentation on Lake Michigan and the Asian Carp. (Information included in this Voter.) This topic is critical to me. My family has been summering on Lake Michigan since 1982. Every year the first sight of the big lake is a source of great joy. We need to be aware of every threat to our wonderful lakes so that we can act to keep this treasure that has been entrusted to us.

Several candidate forums are already scheduled for the General Election and a pro/con debate on the question of having a Constitutional Convention (Wednesday, October 20 at the Baldwin Library in Birmingham). Remember to send in your dues if you haven't already done so - See Page 6 for form.

Now is a great time to slow down, take a breath, and turn a challenge into an inspirational experience.

President, Judy Bateman

Women's Equality Day Luncheon

Women's organizations in Michigan celebrated the 90th anniversary of women winning the right to vote at a luncheon on Saturday, August 21st in Livonia. Laura Callow, Chair of the Michigan Coalition for Equal Rights Studies and member of LWV Northwest Wayne, served as Master of Ceremonies. Laura will be inducted into the Michigan Women's Hall of Fame this October. A Proclamation by Governor Granholm in honor of Women's Equality Day was read.

In a video greeting, U.S. Senator Debbie Stabenow discussed the passage of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution and the number of women elected to Congress over the years. She noted that while recent elections have resulted in an increased number of women in the Senate and the House, the total is still not representative of the population and encouraged more women to run for office.

in 'suffragette' white

Debbie Macon, Vice President of the Women Officials' Network and member of LWV Oakland Area, then spoke on the theme "A Woman's Place" and dynamically emphasized that women belong in the House and the Senate and other offices.

Mickey Edell, past-President of the American Association of University Women of Michigan, provided an update on pay equity legislation and the need for advocacy to achieve that goal.

She introduced a one-act play, "The Mosaic: A Conversation with Alice Paul", where young women are introduced to the struggle for voting rights and equal rights for women by the ghost of Alice Paul, who was instrumental in winning the right to vote and who devoted her life to that cause and to the Equal Rights Amendment which passed Congress, but has not been ratified by enough states.

Would you like to help the League (state and local) provide voter information via its online voter guides and its partnership with Publius.org by utilizing your Word cutting and pasting skills?
